

Statement on Diversity

Division of Student Life
Emory & Henry College

The Division of Student Life at Emory & Henry College affirms the belief that diversity, in an environment of educational fairness, unbounded inquiry, and celebrated differences, is a defining factor in a successful liberal arts education. Such celebrated differences include race, color, ethnicity, religion, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, marital status, national origin, language, political belief or affiliation, socioeconomic status, veteran status, geographic region, and more.

The Division of Student Life at Emory & Henry College seeks to provide each student with a learning environment that fosters healthy relationships, acceptance, and appreciation within the community. To this end, the Division of Student Life is committed to being free of all forms of abuse, discrimination, and harassment.

Therefore, to continue increasing in excellence, the Division of Student Life at Emory & Henry College renews a commitment to diversity through the recognition, support, and celebration of differences. The Division of Student Life also commits to the active recruitment and retention of underrepresented populations in our staffing to provide for a more inclusive multicultural community.
